EMPLOYEE INFORMATION FORM

(To be completed by the employee who is requesting ADA accommodations¹)

Please provide in detail all of the below-requested information. If you need additional space, please use the reverse side of each page and/or attach additional pages.

1.	physical health conditions? (Please only disclose conditions for which you may need an accommodation)
2.	Please identify, by name, address, and telephone number, the health care provider(s) who have rendered the diagnoses identified above.
3.	Please detail how and to what extent (nature, frequency, severity and duration) each of your current health conditions are limiting one or more of your major life activities. ²

² According to the Americans with Disabilities Amendment Act, major life activities may include, but are not limited to, caring for oneself, performing manual tasks, seeing, hearing, eating, sleeping, walking, standing, lifting, bending, speaking, breathing, learning, reading, concentrating, thinking, communicating, working, and major bodily functions. Major bodily functions include but are not limited to, functions of the immune system, normal cell growth, digestive, bowel, bladder, neurological, brain, respiratory, circulatory, endocrine, and reproductive functions. Public Law110–325—Sept. 25, 2008. This is not an exhaustive list of all major life activities. Rather, it is representative of the types of activities that are major life activities. Similar activities in terms of their impact on an individual's functioning, as compared to the average person, may also be major life activities.

	(Quantify where possible. ie how far, how long, how much)
4.	Are your impairments and/or limitations permanent, or will there be changes over time? Please describe any anticipated changes
5.	If your condition is episodic or in remission, please identify and detail the nature, frequency, severity and duration of anticipated future episodes.
6.	Please detail how and to what extent your current health conditions are affecting your ability to perform the essential functions ³ of your position:

The U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission has indicated that an employer never has to remove an essential function of the job as an accommodation. Additionally, an employee with a disability must meet the same performance and production standards, whether quantitative or qualitative, as a non-disabled employee in the same job. Lowering or changing a production standard because an employee cannot meet it due to a disability is not considered a reasonable accommodation. Similarly, an employee who is chronically, frequently, and unpredictably absent may not be able to perform one or more essential functions of the job, or the employer may be able to demonstrate that any accommodation would impose an undue hardship, thus rendering the employee unqualified. Employers generally do not have to accommodate repeated instances of tardiness or absenteeism that occur with some frequency, over an extended period of time and often without advance notice.
